

Another day in Paradise

Tonight Chef Nick's menu is decidedly Asian in style. With the weather today, we thought something from distant lands might be a welcome change of pace. Nick has a unique ability to mix the flavors of China, Japan, Thailand, the Philippines and other Asian destinations to provide you with an exciting dining experience.

We would like to welcome Tom, Peter and Jim to Five Rivers Lodge this evening. It is our pleasure to welcome you to our home and your home away from home.

Bon Appetite!

Jay, Mary, Jim, Chef Nick and all the Staff

Hors d'oeuvres

Ramaki

Pot Stickers

Vicki's Onion Dip

Crudités

Appetizer

Paper~Wrapped Shrimp with Braised Napa Cabbage

Salad

Somen Noodle Salad

Entrée

Pan Seared Breast of Duck with Plum Port Sauce

Mashed Okinawan Sweet Potatoes

Stir Fried Vegetables

Dessert

Spice Cake with Blood Orange Cream Cheese Frosting

"Lewis and Clark's Journal Entry for Today, 21 May 1805"

The day starts pleasantly, and the men tow the boats up the Missouri 20 miles a day. Now they've reached prickly pear cactus country and soon learn the long spines go right through leather moccasins. About sundown, a windstorm blows so much sand no one can eat, cook or sleep. At 8:00 p.m. they even move camp to a more sheltered place.